Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come spiritually into my heart. I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Dear Friends,

We all have particular skills and abilities, and each person's combination of skills and abilities is unique. Our skills and abilities are among God's many gifts to us.

In today's Gospel, one servant is given five talents; another three; another, one. All gifts come from the same generous God, and each of us has been tasked to use them for the good of others. Every day, we have opportunities to show love to others, whether in big or small ways, by our words or in actions.

We are fast approaching the end of another kind of Church year. Next Sunday is the last Sunday of the Church year. The following Sunday, the First Sunday of Advent, marks the beginning of a new Church year. This week, Jesus gives his followers some advice that might serve as inspiration for resolutions to improve our lives.

Where have you witnessed God's generosity in your life? What can you do to show gratitude for these gifts, whether big or small?

Have a Blessed Week!~ Rose
