

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come spiritually into my heart. I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Dear Friends,

Once again, as if the census tax question from last Sunday was not sufficient, the religious leaders try to trap Jesus by asking him to name the greatest of the commandments.

The Pharisees could not comprehend that Jesus did not come to abolish the law but to fulfill it.

We sometimes think that laws are restricting—that they prevent us from doing certain things. Jesus teaches us that the heart of God's Law is love. The commandments, in fact, free us from those things that get in the way of loving God and loving our neighbor.

Jesus' answer suggests that our love of God can be measured by our love of neighbor. The two are closely connected. Loving our neighbor makes our love of God visible.

These commandments are not merely rules but invitations to a deeper, more meaningful life. They call us to align our hearts with God's love and to extend that love to those around us.

Let's make a commitment to each do one thing this week that shows our love of God and our neighbor.

Have a Blessed Week!~ Rose
